NOTES

Artificial intelligence: theory and development of computer systems able to perform tasks normally requiring human intelligence, such as visual perception, speech recognition, decision-making, and translation between languages.

Back door: A feature or defect of a computer system that allows surreptitious unauthorized access to data.

Blade Runner: a 1982 science fiction film directed by Ridley Scott, written by Hampton Fancher and David Peoples. It is a loose adaptation of Philip K. Dick's novel Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep? (1968). The film is set in a dystopian future Los Angeles of 2019, in which synthetic humans known as replicants are bio-engineered by the powerful Tyrell Corporation to work on off-world colonies. When a fugitive group of Nexus-6 replicants led by Roy Batty (Hauer) escapes back to Earth, burnt-out cop Rick Deckard (Ford) reluctantly agrees to hunt them down.

Chimera: An organism containing a mixture of genetically different tissues, formed by processes such as fusion of early embryos, grafting, or mutation.
